A musical score for the song 'The Rose Tree'. It consists of three staves. The top staff is the vocal melody, written in a soprano clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 2/4 time signature. The middle staff is the piano accompaniment, written in a treble clef. The bottom staff is a bass line, written in a bass clef. The music is in common time (C) and features a simple, folk-like melody. The lyrics are written below the vocal staff. The score ends with a double bar line and repeat signs.

[illegible]

The image displays a musical score for the song "The Sound of Silence" by Simon & Garfunkel. The score is written for four instruments: Guitar (Gtr.), Bass, Drums (D. S.), and Percussion (Perc.). The music is in the key of D major (indicated by two sharps, F# and C#) and 4/4 time. The guitar part features a prominent arpeggiated pattern in the upper register, while the bass provides a steady, rhythmic foundation. The drums and percussion are represented by standard notation, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests, indicating a complex, syncopated rhythm. The score is presented in a single system, with each instrument's part on its own staff. A large, faint watermark reading "MusicalScore" is visible across the background of the score.
