Chorus-LIGHT

A musical score for the song 'The Rose Tree'. It consists of three staves. The top staff is the vocal melody, written in a treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The middle staff is the piano accompaniment, also in a treble clef with a key signature of one flat. The bottom staff is a bass line, written in a bass clef with a key signature of one flat. The music is in 4/4 time. The vocal melody starts on a whole note G4, followed by a half note A4, and then a series of eighth and sixteenth notes. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a bass line with occasional chords. The song ends with a final whole note G4 on the vocal staff.

A page of musical notation for a piano piece. The score is written on a grand staff with a treble clef on the left and a bass clef on the right. The music consists of several measures, each containing notes, rests, and dynamic markings. A large, faint watermark is visible across the page, reading "Musical" in a stylized font. The notation includes various note values, rests, and a large, sweeping line that spans across the bottom of the page.
